In State Probe
Of 'Dead' Meat

HARRISBURG, Nov. 18 (AP)—A "dead animal meat racket" operating in southeastern Pennsylvania was exposed today.

Miles Horst, State agriculture secretary, said 27 persons will be arraigned starting tomorrow at Norristown on charges of selling meat of dead horses for human consumption.

Horst, in turning the cases as a "dead animal meat racket," said 255 violations have been uncovered by State food agents in six southeastern Pennsylvania counties.

Warrants were served today on B. Frank Keady Jr., Lancaster a former tennis coach at Franklin and Marshall college, and M. N. Rittenhouse, Port Washington, Montgomery county, Horst said.

Keady posted $2000 bail for the hearing tomorrow before Justice of the peace Charles J. Gorman, Norristown.

HORST SAID the five-month inquiry uncovered "some very disgusting practices both in the preparation and sale of the meat."

Labeled Horsemeat
Legalized in Chicago

CHICAGO, Nov. 18 (AP)—Horsemeat may find its way to dinner tables in Chicago legally.

The Cook County Board of Health today gave its approval to a proposed ordinance permitting the sale of horsemeat for human consumption.

The ordinance provides that such meat may be sold if the meat is federally inspected and plainly labeled. The proposal will be presented to the county board of commissioners next Tuesday.

"We have reason to believe," Horst said in a statement, "that the coming hearings will disclose that the average family, working 'bargain buys' in low-priced meats, has been getting gypped. Every effort is being made to correct these conditions."

Plains Region Swept

Storm Moving East

GARDEN CITY, Kas., Nov. 18 (AP)—A near blizzard with strong winds tonight from the plains region after halting highway travel and disrupting communications in six states.

Cold air masses sweeping down from the Rockies spread snow up to a foot deep over Eastern Colorado, Northwestern Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska, and parts of New Mexico and the Texas Panhandle.

Visibility in 19 Southwest Kansas counties was reported nearly at zero by highway division headquarters. Traffic on all highways there was at a standstill. Crews roamed the roads towing dozens of stalled cars out of ditches.

Woman Helps Control Fire
Until Company Arrives

Damage from a chimney fire at the home of Harvey Reitsnyder, near Sassafrasville, was held to a minimum yesterday morning when Mrs. Reitsnyder deadened the blaze with salt.

Immediately after the blaze was discovered and an alarm sent to the Gilbertville Fire company, Mrs. Reitsnyder dashed to the barn.

Seizing a supply of salt, she ran back to the house and threw handfuls of it down the chimney through a second-floor pipe vent.

According to Clarence Zern, assistant driver for the company, her action kept the blaze in check. He said the chimney was damaged only slightly.

Both pumpers of the Gilbertville company responded. The flames were extinguished by the use of booster streams.

Lee Bernhart, chief of the Sassafrasville Fire company, who arrived at the scene, directed the firefighters.

Mapping Strategy Against Rats

Three local committeemen of the first Chester county rat control campaign discuss plans for "Rat Day" on Nov. 26. They will accept orders from farmers and townspeople today for "Red Squill" rat poison to be used to eliminate rats which destroy 200,000 bushels of grain in Chester county each year. From left to right they are J. Howard Gaut, Russel Stauffer, and Robert Swavely.

Chester County Alerted
For Operation 'Rat Day'

Nov. 26 is "Rat Day."

And, like modern Minute Men, members of the North Coventry grange, school children, and Future Farmers of America are riding to sound the alarm through every Chester county village and farm.

They have declared an all-out war on rats in the county.

Yesterday, Mrs. C. Rudolph Kulp, chairman of the local grange committee, urged townspeople as well as farmers to take part in the rat-killing campaign to be conducted Nov. 26.

According to Joseph S. Oberle, county agricultural extension association agent, it is estimated that the rats which infest houses and buildings in Chester county cause at least $3 damage per rat each year.

"THESE FIGURES indicate that the rat problem is as serious in towns as it is on farms," Mrs. Kulp declared.

She asked residents of Chester county towns to take part in "Rat Day" the day after Thanksgiving.

At that time, local representatives will deliver "Red Squill" rat poison to farmers and townspeople who have ordered it as a mass rat-killing campaign may be conducted.

One pound of the freshly-made poison will sell for 40 cents. It may be ordered through 16 local representatives whose names may be obtained by calling Miller C. Long at Pottstown 406-K-1. Orders must be placed today.

At least 200,000 bushels of grain and feed are destroyed by rats in Chester county each year. The loss is figured from the fact that on each of the 4200 farms in Chester county there are at least 50 rats. Each of these rats eats about one bushel of grain or its equivalent (Continued on Page Nineteen)

MARTINEZ, Calif., Nov. 18 (AP)—An Air Force sergeant who said he "must have killed" his wife, today heard a recording of his own voice tell an entirely different story under the influence of a "truth serum."

Kenneth Long, 26, on trial for the murder of his wife, listened while the court-admitted wire recording of his voice accused another man of the slaying.

Yesterday, he testified he "couldn't remember" what happened June 27, when his wife, Mrs. Barbara Jean Long, 22, was killed with a knife in their Richmond apartment.

"From the looks of things I guess I must have done it," he said.

Defense Attorney George T. Davis did not place Long on the stand today but asked and received permission from superior Judge Hugh Donovan to introduce the wire recording, taken the past Oct. 30 while Long was in the county jail.

GROUND BROKEN
FOR NEW CHURCH

Ceremony Marks Start
Of Work on Building
For Brethren in Christ

The first step in the construction of a Brethren in Christ Church was taken at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon when ground was broken for the new edifice on Glasgow street.

The Rev. H. M. Wolgemuth, pastor of the Brethren in Christ mission, wielded the shovel in the ceremonies.

After opening the services, the Rev. Wolgemuth introduced the Rev. F. W. Macbeth, Elizabeth, who spoke briefly to the 35 members of the congregation who were present. A dedicatory prayer was offered by Bishop Jacob Bowers, Graterford.

Plans for the new church call for a one-story concrete block structure 32 feet wide by 55 feet long to be built on two lots. It will have a Spanish style front.

Two Sunday school rooms and the main body of the church will occupy the first floor, while a large assembly room will be finished in the basement. The church will seat approximately 200 persons.

THE PLOT UPON which the church will be built measures 60 feet wide by 200 feet deep and will provide parking facilities in the rear. A driveway will be constructed along the side of the building.

Funds for the purchase of the land and the partial construction of the church have been donated by members of the community. The building committee is continuing to solicit funds. The Rev. Wolgemuth said.

Excavation work will be started today by Paul Buckwalter, who has donated his services to help in the construction.

BUSY MAN—THAT'S THE BURGESS

Always at Public's Beck and Call

By FRED SELBY
(Mercury Staff Writer)

Would you like a spare-time job that will bring to your office in less than three years more than 2610 personal visits from complainers, suggesters and requesters?

Do you want to answer the telephone, day or night, 5210 times?

Would you like to be bombarded with 1280 circulars and 610 letters, all of them wanting you to do something?

If this is the kind of spare-time job you want, run for Burgess of Pottstown at the next election. The pay is about 80 cents an hour.

THESE FIGURES were culled from Burgess William A. Griffith's directory in an interview last night. He began keeping the directory when he took office after the 1945 election.

Youth Found Dazed

HIT-RUN THEORY

NEAR SKIPPACK

Trappe Driver Treated
At Hospital Here; Fails
To Recall Mishap Details

Samuel Burns, 19, of 572 Main street, Trappe, sustained a concussion yesterday afternoon in a puzzling auto accident that may have been caused by a hit-and-run driver.

The youth was taken to Memorial hospital, where X-rays will be made today to determine if he had even a more serious head injury. Although he was conscious, he was unable to recall details of the accident.

His 1939 coupe had rammed the side of a concrete bridge over a small creek that crosses Skippack pike about a half mile west of Skippack.

Burns was discovered walking dazedly around his demolished car by Elias M. Landis of Skippack, president of Landis Brothers butcher establishment in Skippack, where the youth is employed and from which he was driving home when the crash occurred at about 4:30 o'clock.

LANDIS, WHO was returning home from nearby Lucon, stopped when he saw the wreck and recognized Burns, who was walking around the coupe muttering "What happened?"

Two men were picking up wrecked parts and throwing them into the back of Burns's coupe, Landis said.

While Landis was trying to question Burns, Elias Landis Jr., 15, overheard one of the "two men say, 'Let's get the hell out of here.'"

With that, the pair hurried to their car on the other side of the bridge and drove away.

The elder Landis said there was a strong possibility that the other men's car had forced Burns' car off the road and into the bridge.

Landis drove Burns to the Royersford office of Dr. J. E. P. Burns, an uncle, who ordered him taken to the hospital in the Trappe Community ambulance.

Collegeville State police are investigating.

In the YMCA gymnasium, dimmed to romantic mood with softly-colored lights, high school-age boys and girls will frolic in their first Saturday night dance, under the auspices of the Pottstown Recreation commission, from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock tomorrow night.

Francis Donnon, Recreation director, hoped last night for a good turnout, with boys and girls from Pottstown, West Pottsgrove and North Coventry High schools invited to attend.

Paul Hoffman's orchestra will play for the youngsters, who voted in a recent survey for "live" music rather than recorded numbers.

Donations will go for Christmas food, toys and clothing of Pottstown's needy.

On crowded days, Cox said, a third kettle will be placed in front of the Farmer's market in the Bahr arcade building.

Albert Erb Is Appointed
Superintendent of Mails

The appointment of Albert F. Erb, 617 North Evans street, as superintendent of mails, and of E. Donald Grim, North Hanover street, to serve as his foreman assistant, were announced officially yesterday by Maurice E. Samsaman, postmaster of the Pottstown post office.

Erb is the first man to be appointed an official of the Pottstown office directly from the ranks of the carriers, while Grim is the first man ever to become foreman, a completely new position in the office.

A son of the late George B. and Alice S. Erb, of Sassafras, Erb has worked for the post office department for the past 32 years. He began first as a substitute clerk, but for the past 13 years, he has been a regular carrier. His route covered Pottstown south of High street and South Pottstown.

Prior to working in the post office, he was employed by the Eastern Steel company and the Duquesne Slag company.

Hospital Auxiliary
Fashion Show Needs
Name; Prize Offered

Want to win a $25 U. S. Savings bond?

It's easy.

The Junior auxiliary of Pottstown hospital needs a name for its fashion show, to be held in Sunnybrook ballroom early in March, 1949.

So the public is being asked to supply the name—and whoever makes the best suggestion, in the opinion of the judges, will receive the $25 bond.

It's not necessary to tear off any box tops. Just write down one or more titles for the fashion show—there's no limit on the number—and send your suggestions to Pottstown hospital, attention of Mrs. C. B. Welch, president of the Junior auxiliary.

THE DEADLINE is Dec. 1. All entries postmarked after midnight of that day will not be accepted.

Judges want the suggestions to be as brief as possible. Two or three words might provide a perfect title for the show, but in case you have a slightly more lengthy idea, the limit will be six words.

After a meeting of the Junior auxiliary on Dec. 6 the winning name will be announced. Judges will be appointed by the Junior auxiliary.

At a meeting of the fashion show committee yesterday morning in the Ellis Mills store, a group of merchants and representatives of the Junior auxiliary announced the final list of the 13 stores which will participate in the late Winter show.

Dulles Says Europe Must Be United Or Fall in Red Orbit

PARIS, Nov. 18 (AP)—If Western Europe chooses to remain feeble and disunited, its separate pieces may be drawn one at a time into the orbit of the East, John Foster Dulles warned today.

Speaking to the American Club of Paris, Dulles said Americans want a strong and unified Europe capable of standing up for itself. He denounced as "grotesque" any charge that the United States wants to use the continent merely as a base for achieving world mastery.

Dulles, a Republican, was designated today by President Truman as acting chairman of the U. S. delegation to the U. N. assembly. Although he said he was not expressing an official American position, the U. S. delegation here billed his speech in advance as important.

In the past 30 years, Dulles said, Americans have made three great efforts to help the peoples of Europe preserve their free institutions. He listed these as the two world wars and the economic aid now summed up in the European Recovery program (ERP). He continued:

"We want Europe to have so much strength that neither the United States nor any other power whatsoever be able to use Europe for purposes alien to the free development of Europe itself."

"We want Europe to be sufficiently unified so that, practically, we can work with it."

"We want a Europe that has so much moral and intellectual dynamism that, in the tradition of the Magna Carta and the declaration of the rights of man, it will continue to arouse men everywhere to strike off any shackles that curtail their self-development."

"We want a Europe capable of inventing a new industrial revolution that will continue to multiply the productivity of human labor."

He said Americans are willing to join in the great effort to help end the disunity of Western Europe but they feel this ought to be the last such effort required of them. Genuine progress is being made for creating unity, he added.

Senator-Elect Long Tells AFL Men Who Supported Labor Law Will Repeal It

CINCINNATI, Nov. 18 (AP)—Senator-elect Russell B. Long, son of the late Huey P. Long of Louisiana, told the AFL today a lot of Congressmen who supported the Taft-Hartley act will vote for its repeal.

Long

"It is my hope that by the time Congress is in session one month, we will have taken that law off the statute books," Long said. He was 30 years old on Nov. 3 and will be the youngest member of the new Senate.

Long spoke after Daniel J. Tobin, head of the teamsters, handed AFL President William Green a check for $2,500 as his trophy share in the political league's program for the next 14 months.

The amount represented the union's ten-cents-a-head contribution agreed upon at the convention yesterday.

Tobin's check was the first received for that purpose. He presented it after getting an opinion from Counsel Albert Wolf that it was legal under the Taft-Hartley act.

The law prohibits union contributions in a campaign, but Tobin made sure the money was going for political education and information.

Tobin had expressed a preference for Republican candidate Thomas E. Dewey a few days before the last election.

Convention committees studying scores of resolutions and proposals of state and national legislation, and routine union matters will start reporting tomorrow.

THE MEETING ENDS next Tuesday.

The major proposal under study would create an over-all legislative council to work out strategy and the type of legislation the AFL will endorse to replace the Taft-Hartley act.

Most of the day was devoted to speech-making. Delegates heard addresses by the British and Canadian fraternal delegates, and by Max Eastman, one-time Social Revolutionist.

Eastman's appearance before the convention was criticized by Bill Fager, secretary of the Ohio State Civil Rights congress, in a statement to reporters.

THE CONTRIBUTING editor of the "New Leader" and "Reader's Digest" said he had lived in Russia for two years and once was a Communist sympathizer. He told the AFL he had changed his views and that the competitive capitalist system is the "goose that lays the golden eggs."

Eastman said Washington diplomacy was "Sunday school sentimentalism" when he brought the nation to the edge of another war. He said the Republicans had "joined in the hymn singing."

The speaker declared Joseph Stalin, "one of the master dupes in all history, is sitting in the Kremlin grinning at the way they fell for his tricks."

Dulles Says Europe Must Be United Or Fall in Red Orbit

PARIS, Nov. 18 (AP)—If Western Europe chooses to remain feeble and disunited, its separate pieces may be drawn one at a time into the orbit of the East, John Foster Dulles warned today.

Speaking to the American Club of Paris, Dulles said Americans want a strong and unified Europe capable of standing up for itself. He denounced as "grotesque" any charge that the United States wants to use the continent merely as a base for achieving world mastery.

Dulles, a Republican, was designated today by President Truman as acting chairman of the U. S. delegation to the U. N. assembly. Although he said he was not expressing an official American position, the U. S. delegation here billed his speech in advance as important.

In the past 30 years, Dulles said, Americans have made three great efforts to help the peoples of Europe preserve their free institutions. He listed these as the two world wars and the economic aid now summed up in the European Recovery program (ERP). He continued:

"We want Europe to have so much strength that neither the United States nor any other power whatsoever be able to use Europe for purposes alien to the free development of Europe itself."

"We want Europe to be sufficiently unified so that, practically, we can work with it."

"We want a Europe that has so much moral and intellectual dynamism that, in the tradition of the Magna Carta and the declaration of the rights of man, it will continue to arouse men everywhere to strike off any shackles that curtail their self-development."

"We want a Europe capable of inventing a new industrial revolution that will continue to multiply the productivity of human labor."

He said Americans are willing to join in the great effort to help end the disunity of Western Europe but they feel this ought to be the last such effort required of them. Genuine progress is being made for creating unity, he added.

You can't get blood out of a rock or stone.—Old Persian proverb.

"The Brave Men, Living and Dead"

FOR three frightful days, 151,000 men struggled in climactic battle. The soft Spring grass lay crushed and reddened on those green Pennsylvania hills. By the morning of July 4, 1863, the hills were still. A fresh morning breeze dispersed the acrid cannon smoke and the fields lay quiet with their 5,664 dead. Long wagon trains plodded north and south, bearing their wracked loads of wounded—27,602 in all. The Battle of Gettysburg was over.

It had been the most important event of the Civil War—the turning point. Whether dressed in grey or blue, the American soldier had scaled a peak of glory there. Yet it was but one battle in one war. A mere handful of soldiers had fought there in the eyes of modern militarists—an insignificant number had died.

Then, six months later, on November 19, 1863, Gettysburg suddenly became much more than the site of an important battle. It became a pledge for all time to the fighting men of our nation. In the purest literature and most perfect English ever spoken, Abe Lincoln dedicated our nation to the completion of the "unfinished work" of America's fighting men—those of Saratoga, Bull Run and Saipan.

He voiced for all our debt to the Americans not only of Concord, New Orleans, and Vicksburg, but also of San Juan Hill, the Argonne, Coral Seas, Corregidor, Midway, Anzio, and Normandy.

Not a dedication to the soldier alone, but to the men of all services, the Army, Navy, Marines, Air Force and Coast Guard, — to Americans who have fought anywhere, anytime, to "those who here gave their lives that that nation might live. We here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain...."

Government Payroll

MORE THAN ONE out of every 10 working persons in the country is employed by either the federal, state or local governments, according to recent census bureau figures.

Taken alone, the federal government's budget has increased from four billion dollars to 43 billions and its payroll from 600,000 to 2,000,000 in the last 16 years, according to Herbert Hoover, who, as his "last public service," is directing a nonpartisan study of the ways to make the federal government simpler and more economical.

From the beginning of the year through August, the number of civilian employees on the federal payroll increased at an average rate of nearly 500 a day. By the end of August they totaled 1,895,400, according to the civil service commission. That was a jump of 18,400 over July and 6 percent more than were on the government payroll the year before. It is 206 percent of the 1939 average of 920,000 federal employees.

When congress meets again in a few weeks, it will have the complete report of the Hoover commission on the organization of the executive branch of the government. Preliminary reports from that commission indicate that it will propose the merging of many existing government agencies to avoid needless duplication and waste of effort. It also is asking congress to adopt measures that would take more of the politics out of federal employment and attract and retain higher caliber people in the federal service.

Not only federal economy, but good government and the public welfare, will require that the congress give prompt and thorough consideration to the Hoover commission's recommendations, when they become public within the next few weeks.

"A Mighty Effort"

AS GENERAL EISENHOWER once said, "Citizens, community and nation must join to help defeat the menace of fire.... It is a mighty effort involving all our citizens, and covering every area of our social and economic life. Fire... must be controlled if the economic structure we have built is to be free from the threat of recurrent destruction."

The citizen's duty in this regard is plain. It lies in keeping his property to high standards of fire safety. That means care in the handling of cigarettes, explosive fluids, and all other flammables. It means a clean and orderly home and place of business, without dangerous accumulations of trash. It means thorough maintenance of heating systems, electric appliances, and other such equipment.

All of these goals can be attained by one town—and the cost will be repaid time and time again in saving of lives and property.

What it all adds up to is that we can lick fire—if we have the will to do it.

Grampaw Oakley

PUNKIN CORNERS, November 18.
Dear Sir 'n' Brother:

Wal, I see by the papers where a six-month-old New Jersey baby girl has learned to swim though still unable to walk. Maybe she already has her eye on the 1967 Atlantic City Miss American beauty pageant!

Hope nobody in Pottstown takes a tip from that Wisconsin thief who swiped a parking meter. That guy mustn't have stopped to consider its resale value.

And say: The nice thing about modern football is if the local team is going sour, you always can spend the time by looking at the gorgeous drum majorettes! Hopin' you sir the same.

In Favor of Evictions So 'Underdogs' Can Get Homes

Action Justified, He Claims

To the Editor: The house I live in is absolutely dangerous. We are just one of the many families forced to live in such places because we can't find or afford better.

I see some of the families at Penn Village are being evicted because their income is more than that for families living there. I think that is as it should be. It gives someone like me and my family a chance for something better.

If Burgess Griffith tries to keep these high-salaried families in there, he is lower than a snake's belly. It makes my blood boil to think he will fight the chances of the underdog instead of fighting for more housing.

Why No Speeder Arrests?

To the Editor: Doesn't The Mercury print arrests of drivers for speeding? Or aren't there just none to print?

I notice a lot of items about drivers being picked up for speeding through red lights. That's a serious offense, I know, but how about the speeders? We have race tracks at both ends of the borough on High street. I could grab at least one speeder along each of these stretches at any half hour period on any day. But, no. Instead, the police wait for them at the red lights and those who are going too fast to stop or skid through the signal get the tickets.

The collision on West High street shows what happens when speeding goes unregulated. Fortunately, no one was seriously hurt. Just wait though, when the first patches of ice get on that highway! There will be cars smashed to pieces and bodies all over the place.

There are 35-mile limit signs along this road, but it seems to me they are illegal because they weren't put right.

INTERPRETIVE

Europe's Home Interests Hamper Recovery Plan

By J. M. ROBERTS JR.
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

GENERAL DE GAULLE, with his statements that the Marshall Plan's success comes second to the "essential interests" of France, gives voice to the very thing which, next to Communism, threatens the future of Europe.

So-called "essential" national interests are being put ahead of over-all safety and recovery.

France puts her fear of a beaten and easily controllable Germany ahead of that for a strong and aggression-bent Russia.

Britain tends to put hope of something regaining her position in world trade ahead of a secure if less powerful place in a unified Western Europe. She balks at reducing trade barriers which give her priority. The French balk at letting Germany produce things all Europe needs because to them every German factory is a cannon mold and every German industrialist a bugaboo.

WINSTON CHURCHILL says the British government's plan for steel nationalization, which may prove very expensive, takes the form of state trading "indistinguishable from that of the Russian Communist government" and threatens Anglo-American relations.

The London Telegraph and Financial Times have both labeled the nationalization bill as purely political. Socialism's last big card to be used before the 1950 elections.

But it is more than that. Britain's fight for recovery has the admiration and sympathy of most Americans. But any fair appraisal of the British industrial and trade policy since the war must recognize not only the motive of self-defense, but also a nationalism which is not always compatible with what America considers the general welfare.

Where France has openly opposed some of the policies which we believe lead to that end, British economic self-interest and vacillation regarding our Russian policy have caused our diplomats just about as much trouble.

These things are easy to condone, in the light of the pressures on both countries. France has been badly kicked around by Germany, and Britain must export to live. But both problems can be solved better through co-operation than through some of the ancient ways to which they adhere.

THERE IS political and economic jealousy — even some violent dislike — between England and France. It is more widely recognized in Europe than among those who glibly expect the Marshall plan to fix everything at one stroke.

De Gaulle expressed part of it when he said that the defense of France must not be centered in England. I presume he was talking about General Montgomery heading the European union's military staff. But he forgets that France's defense has centered in England for 50 years, both as a base for counter-attack and as a lodestone for attracting the help from America without which neither of them could have survived.

I CAME AWAY from Europe last month seriously depressed because her countries are being led by men who would rather bandy this kind of stuff around for domestic political purposes than get together for general recovery.

I don't mean to be too sharp, or to cast doubt on the ultimate success of the Marshall Plan. But America has its problems in trying to help them which might as well be faced squarely.

FLOWERS FOR THE LIVING

FOR MISS ELEANOR FILLMEN
1017 South street
BECAUSE her engagement to Mr. Victor Fontana, 101 Vine street, Stowe, was announced recently.

The name and complete address of the author must accompany every contribution but on request will not be published. Letters not exceeding 250 words will receive preference.

It is high time someone who is responsible for this error get them straightened out so that the law can be enforced.

North Charlotte street is a bad spot for this kind of reckless driving, too. But there are just enough humps in this road to keep the speeding down to a point where accidents are prevented.

Funny thing, huh? Bumpy streets keep drivers within the law where police won't. Maybe the borough ought to chop up West High street; a little if that is the only way these demons can be stopped.

The best solution, probably, is to get the State police to travel the borough more. As it is, I believe they are even up with our Pottstown cops in catching speeders inside of the borough limits.

(Editor's Note: Yes, P. E. W. The Mercury publishes arrests of drivers for speeding — when they're made. That should answer your second question, too.)

UJA Shows the Way

To the Editor: It always has been amazing to me that the Community Chest has to struggle to raise something over $30,000 and then the citizens of Pottstown's Jewish community go out and, with seemingly little effort or fanfare, gathers up a kitty of more than half that much for its oppressed people.

Now I see where the United Jewish Appeal goal of $60,000 here this year. And you can be the last of Community Chest dollar that they'll come pretty close to doing it.

It makes me think that the Jewish people have a cause that digs deeper into human emotion. In any case, if they can be so generous toward others thousands of miles away, we need to do some soul-searching for the cause of our indifference.

The Voice of Broadway

By DOROTHY KILGALLEN

Broadway Bulletin Board
THEIR AGENT evidently isn't sure the Johnny Johnston-Kathryn Grayson reconciliation will last. He's booking them with other partners for personal appearances....

Intimates say a 10-page letter wins every day from Elizabeth Taylor's house in Hollywood to Korea, where Glenn Davis is doing a tour of duty.... All Johnson is anxious to stage buddy-buddy scenes with Larry Parks in behalf of the new Johnson picture, but Larry is refusing to appear on Joley's air show at the money offered.... Dore Schary is on an economy binge at MGM — million-dollar budgets and long-shooting schedules to be decapitated. White-haired boy at the moment is director Joe Newman, who brought in a picture in ten days for $125,000.... Merle Oberon and Lucien Ballard have three dates planned for this week—but only to work out the details of their divorce.

ALL THE TOP brass of the movie industry are coming to Gotham next week for a long conference with Eric Johnston about the current problems of the film business. (And oh, have they got problems!) England's elderly and eccentric poetess, Dr. Edith Sitwell, is laid up in her hotel suite—result of totting her own luggage. She didn't carry the heavy stuff because of the dock strike, but because "I'm a husky girl and have to do things myself."

Friends hope the reports that Michael O'Shea and Virginia Mayo are writing an unhappy ending aren't true.... Clark Gable and Iris Bynum have resumed.... The big Hollywood buzz is that Viveca Lindfors, the new Swedish star, was on the verge of capturing the Ali Kahn from Rita Hayworth, and that's why Rita hurried all off to Mexico. Incidentally, if his exchange will decide to follow him to Hollywood, Khan will take off for home to avoid seeing her.

STEVE COCHRANE will play Juarez when Mae West revises "Diamond Lil" in Montclair later this season. Jack LaRue did the role in the Broadway production....

For a lark, Pat O'Brien performed as one of the Singing Waiters at Hogan's Irish House the other night—and not a single customer did a double take.... Pat is still kidding him about it.... J. Sinclair Davis, the Oklahoma oil man, is gushing over Claire Trent of the Sheraton Lounge beauty corps.... Lady Mendel's new protégée is Larry Duquette. Friends hear he will leave him codes. The Pete Postwicks (he's the socialite polo star) will give it the Reno treatment after the reconciliation didn't take. Pete, not his wife, will go to Nevada for the divorce.

NORCO ORCHESTRA — The North Coventry Farmers Union orchestra has the following personnel: Hugh J. High, flute and director; Edgar and Lizzie Smale, first violins; Ade Smith, second violin; Allen Smale, alto, and Susie Smale, piano.

YES, INDEED. I am always pleased to see such concrete demonstrations of applied psychology as this parrot example.

Indeed, anything which distracts attention, thus takes the patient's mind off himself and hence reduces his pain. Pain is thus largely a matter of our attention, anyway, as I have previously explained in this column.

Thus, if a soldier's attention is focused on the battle he may actually suffer a flesh wound but mechanically brush his hand across the bullet hole, as if it were simply a mosquito bite.

Moreover, if you happen to notice the ticking of your alarm clock some night, you may think it sounds very loud so that you cannot go to sleep, whereas the same ticking has not disturbed you in previous months, simply because you didn't consciously pay heed to it.

Whenever we consciously attend to any ache or pain, it looms much larger than before. People who are chronically worried about their health are called hypochondriacs.

They have pains in the abdomen or chest or head but the physician may not find anything organically wrong.

For they have simply educated themselves to notice minor sensations from the heart, pelvis or bowels, which normally we ignore. So they may actually train themselves to be hypersensitive.

Under an anesthetic, a patient does not feel pain, for we have blocked the nerve currents. Even in hypnosis, we can also eliminate pain by a similar psychological blockage.

A busy executive will also not notice the severity of his headache as much while on duty as when he gets home, and has less to distract his attention.

Some modern dentists now use the television sets in their office or employ sleight-of-hand tricks to divert the attention of their patients. And these psychological aids soon pay for themselves in greater dental patronage.

ence to the poverty-stricken and other unfortunate persons in our town.

The Jews should be highly commended for their generosity and magnificent achievements in relieving human suffering. Others in Pottstown would do well to follow their example.

Trash on Pottstown Streets

To the Editor: Pottstown has some of the dirtiest streets of any town I have ever seen — and that includes a lot of places from Mosshead, Fla., to Roscoe, Minn.

Way, when these Fall winds start to blow down High street the air looks like a cyclone just hit a trash heap. Besides that, the dirt blowing into one's eyes is almost blinding.

Some time ago I believe I read where some local organization was going to buy waste receptacles for downtown. I haven't seen hide nor hair of them yet. If they are there, they certainly aren't being used.

Once a year the Chamber of Commerce pulls off a clean-up campaign. There's a big fuss about that until the school kids get their prizes and then everyone goes back to living like pigs.

Laughter Spoils Programs

To the Editor: I should like to voice my opinion about the laughing which is done by the radio studio audiences on the various programs. It seems one program started the thing off, and now most every broadcast has followed suit. To me it spoils the programs and I don't care to tune in on them any more.

Laughter is a wonderful thing, but on every comic radio broadcast it's punishment to the listening audience. Sponsors take note.

Hollywood

By EDITH GWYNN

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 18 — The presidential election changed a lot of things besides the color of poll-takers' faces. Some time ago, George Seaton, that fine director of "Miracle on 34th St." and "Apartment for Peggy," brought the novel, "The Bright Promise," to Darrell Zanuck, head of 20th-Fox, and he agreed it would make a swell movie. He bought it. Story touches on the Hoover depression period — and also the influence that some of P. D. Roosevelt's words had on a young married couple.

Just starting life together as he came into office. About a month ago, Spyros Skouras, head of Fox West Coast Theatres, a staunch Republican and a major stockholder in 20th-Fox, decided that the story should be shelved. It was—but not for long. Because of the recent voting, "The Bright Promise" is now on full force again, with people working on the script like mad. It will be filmed in the Spring, and no doubt Bill Perleberg, who with Seaton has proved such a terrific click, will be its producer. They're a team that not only "promise"—but deliver.

JOBS UPON A TIME

LEW AYRES, born in Minneapolis, Minn., in 1908, began his career as an orchestra musician, quitting medical school to join a band. Lew was appearing in a Hollywood night club when he was signed to play the lead role in All Quiet on the Western Front. He also starred in Kim. It was feared his picture career was ruined when Lew stated, in World War II, that he was a conscientious objector, but he so distinguished himself in the Army Medical Corps, and as an assistant chaplain, that he was welcomed back.

Maj. Alexander de Seversky was born in Tiflis, Russia, and was graduated from the Imperial Naval Academy with post graduate work at the Russian Military School of Aeronautics. His leg was shot off in World War I in which he served as an aviator. But Seversky was back within a year at the front with an artificial leg and a special decree from the late Czar Nicholas. Seversky was visiting the United States on an aviation commission at the start of the Russian revolution, and decided to settle down here. He became a test pilot and consulting engineer to the United States Air Service, later forming his own airplane corporation. Seversky was one of the staunchest champions of the United States air power in World War II and holds the rank of major in the United States Army. He became a naturalized citizen of the United States in 1927 and is married to an American girl.

MODERN MANNERS

ALL AROUND THE TOWN

Seto Bags Bear... Cops Get Honors...

BEAR IN BAG—Local Nimrods who have been hunting bear for many years will have to take a back seat when Dr. Herbert P. Seto, 1236 High street, enters the room. Dr. Seto set out the past Sunday afternoon with Peter Dori, 520 Race street, Stowe, for Powell, a small community located near Towanda. When bear season opened Monday morning, Dr. Seto closed it for himself within a few hours. His score — first trip — first shot — first bear. The bruin was small, Dr. Seto said, weighing only about 135 pounds, completely dressed. A deer hunting venture last year was his only previous excursion after big game, but the doctor sharpens his eye on small game several times during the season most years. He used a 30-06 to get his bear.

CEMETERY MEN AT GRAVES' SIDE — Five members of the Odd Fellows Cemetery association of Mt. Tabor lodge, Shamokin, visited at the home of William B. Graves, 1329 Cherry street, recently. Graves, who has been a resident of Pottstown for the past eight years, formerly lived in Shamokin. He has been confined to his bed for the past two years.... Mrs. Dow I. Sears, 1422 Sunset drive, wife of Pottstown's borough manager, is expected to go to Jefferson hospital in Philadelphia today for a stay of approximately two weeks. Mrs. Sears will undergo an operation Monday.

GRADUATES — Motor Patrolmen Lewis M. Borgiet and Stanley Borowy received graduation certificates the other day for the six-weeks firearms course they completed recently at the Lower Merion pistol range under direction of two FBI agents. Both of Pottstown's shooters did well in competition with some 20 police officers and detectives from all parts of the county. Borgiet's average on two 50-shot tests was 90, while Borowy scored 80-plus. Borgiet's average was a whisker or two from the top, while Stan's mark was well above the 70 considered par for the course.

GIVE AWAY DEPT. — Four eight-week-old puppies are waiting for new homes. They're short-haired, of mixed breed and owned by Mrs. Hannah Westler, Rattlesnake Hill, Call 846-J3.... Mrs. Marion Grace, 230 Oak street, has three dogs, two male and one female, part collie, she'll give to first callers. Phone 2712-J.... The guessers are saying the phantom voice on "Sing It Again" is Red Grange.

"SEED IT!" — Enthusiastic sky-watchers phoned The Mercury early the other morning with the news that they had, at last, spotted the elusive comet in the Southeastern sky. Seen first a week ago Saturday in South Africa, the comet, described as "the most beautiful since Halley's," has been artfully dodging observers, particularly local ones.

The sky-scanners described the "comet" as having a tail and being very bright. Dr. Roy K. Marshall, director of the Fels Planetarium, Philadelphia, put the lie to the report, however. It couldn't have been the comet, he said. Since the past Saturday astronomers have been unable to see it except with telescopes. The rising sun is too close to enable it to be seen with the naked eye, he said.

All it was, he explained, was Venus, which is now in the Eastern sky and very bright. Sometimes, he added, the planet gives the impression of having a tail.

YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M. D.
OUR eyes mean so much to us and many of us do not fully appreciate that fact until we have some trouble with our sight.... That is why our eyes should not be neglected. Glaucoma is one of the eye troubles for which we should be on the lookout. It is a disorder of the eye in which the pressure of the fluid within the eyeball is increased. Unfortunately, the exact cause of this disorder is not as yet known. However, if treated properly and early, much can be done for this condition.

Some cases of glaucoma are very serious, while many remain mild in nature. The recognition of this latter fact is of great benefit to the patient's mental attitude. In some instances, the eyesight remains unchanged over an indefinite period.

Drs. Posner and Schiessman have reported on over 370 cases of glaucoma. The pressure within the eyeball remained only slightly increased in 40%.

They suggest that examination of the eyeball tension be made in all persons over 40 years of age, and I think this is a good thing for all of us to keep in mind.

If the tension is at all increased, further investigation of the condition of the eyes should be carried out at once. Any difference in tension between the eyes is a sign of importance which the doctor knows demands investigation.

Another important sign is variation of pressure within the eyeball, even though the pressure does not seem to be abnormally high. And it is an important thing for all persons to know that there seems to be a great deal of evidence that glaucoma tends to run in families.

The symptoms of this condition vary to a great extent. There may be occasional blurring of the eyesight, some discomfort within the eye, excessive tearing, the seeing of a halo around lights, and difficulty in reading. Congestion of the eyeball is usually present. Sometimes the only sign of the disease is variation in the eyeball pressure.

Surgical treatment of glaucoma is used but not when the condition is so slight that the eyesight is not impaired. In severe cases, however, operation may be necessary to save the eyesight.

County Withdraws Mandamus Action Against Area Justice

Mandamus proceedings brought by State Trooper John J. Coll, Devon barracks, against Kenneth W. Smiley, East Pikeland township justice of the peace, have been withdrawn. It was announced yesterday.

Smiley, who reportedly refused to issue a warrant for Coll to summon Stephen Fakete, Phoenixville, for a hearing on a minor traffic law violation, explained he had been misinformed as to the duties of his office.

He told District Attorney John M. Kurtz, who filed the mandamus action at West Chester, that he only took the office of justice of the peace because he was able to aid persons in Kimberlin who needed the services in drawing up legal papers.

INDICATING THAT he was not interested in criminal cases and that he did not realize the job would obligate him to handle them, he told the district attorney he planned to relinquish his duties.

After Smiley agreed that he would accept the information of the State policeman and summon Fakete for a hearing, the mandamus proceedings were withdrawn. The charge against Fakete was driving a truck through a stop sign.

Turks Display Military Might

In the 25th anniversary of the Turkish Republic, thousands of spectators gathered in Ankara as the most modern tank units rumbled past. This was but one feature of a parade in which the armed might of Turkey was put on display. In line with the American policy of building a barrier against possible future Russian aggression, Turkey has been getting large-scale military aid from the United States.

Evans Family Sails For Visit to Ireland

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Evans Jr. and two sons, Dick and Jack, 721 Main street, Royersford, left yesterday for Castlefinn, Ireland, to visit Mrs. Evans' father, David Crawford.

The family left here by motor for New York City to board the liner "Britannic," but because of the longshoremen's strike the steamship company is providing rail transportation from New York to Halifax, Nova Scotia. They will sail from the latter port.

Mr. Evans is high school principal and science instructor. During his absence Miss Charlotte Witmer, of Collegeville, will serve as substitute on the high school faculty. The Evans family expects to return home during the Christmas season.

Sex Movie Causes Near-Riot in Town

ANGIER, N. C., Nov. 18 (AP)—They brought a sex movie into this town last night and it took the combined efforts of the police and fire departments to bring order.

The thing was entitled "Mom and Dad," and the billing contained such descriptive as "bold! shocking! The secrets of sensible sex!"

Mayor Glenn Wilson said it was the "biggest crowd I've ever seen here," that gathered outside the local theater.

The theater entrance was blocked and Police Chief Wade Adams, who also is fire chief, ordered the fire hose to be turned into the crowd. Puffs flew as some of the crowd rushed firemen, but no one was injured.

Today, Mayor Wilson said he wanted to forget the matter. He said that he planned a city ordinance outlawing sex films. "Any thing that can't be seen by a mixed audience can't be shown in this town," Wilson asserted.

Separate showings for women and men were in order and at the time of the disturbance, the men were awaiting admittance outside the building.

$65,000. Payments to 1412 depositors in the National Bank and Trust company of Spring City, totaling $129,500, started the past Monday. Members of the Christmas savings fund of both banks may receive their respective amounts by presenting their pass books.

Do Your Waffles Turn Out Soggy? Bake Them Longer

Light, crisp waffles are cold-weather favorites with almost everyone. Experienced cooks say it is just as easy to make them light and tender as heavy and soggy—if a few important principles are followed.

If you are having waffle troubles, Frances Cook, food specialist at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, says to check your recipe first and then your method of measuring and mixing.

Every good cookbook carried tested recipes for waffles that are satisfactory if you do not have your own.

If waffles turn out limp and soggy—and you are sure of your preparation—try baking them longer. Crispness depends largely on length of baking.

The exact time needed will depend on the temperature and the structure of the waffle iron. Usually four to five minutes is best for plain waffles.

Remember that a thin batter needs to be baked longer than a stiff one. When more flour is added, the baking time is shortened, but the waffles will not be so tender.

Lady Cops Back at Work After Indignation 'Strike'

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 18 (AP)—About 50 "lady cops" were back on the job late today after a short-lived work stoppage called to protest a decision of the Allegheny County court.

The police women stopped work briefly for an indignation meeting after Judge Sara H. Soffel decided a technically forced her to throw out a suit filed by Policewoman Mrs. Mildred Sladic, 30.

Mrs. Sladic had filed the suit in the traffic death of her son two years ago on the same corner where she now directs school children across the street.

Cattle Eat Tough Fodder, TNT and Fence-Posts

BILLINGS, Mont., Nov. 18 (AP)—Montana livestock have been munching dynamite and fenceposts, sheriff's officers reported today.

Deputy Harold Price of Laurel brought 78 sticks of dynamite to the sheriff's office here, saying it apparently had been scattered along a highway after it fell from a truck.

Price said farmer Frank Platz reported his cows ate several sticks and Mrs. Jack Stevens said children brought 14 sticks into her yard.

Yesterday, Ernie Olsen at Buffalo reported neighbor's horses had eaten a fence comprised of cedar posts imported from Canada.

Some time may elapse before a successor is named to replace the Rev. James D. Matchette, retiring pastor of St. James Methodist church, Bishop Fred P. Corson, of the Philadelphia district of the church, said last night.

Dr. John Herr, district superintendent, is now conferring with church leaders, the bishop said. At the end of the conference, the successor will be named, he said.

Malaria Mosquito Being Used to Help Find Cure for Disease

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 (AP)—The malaria-bearing mosquito may prove to be science's best ally in finding a way to prevent the disease, Navy researchers said today.

They reported new findings indicating that the effectiveness of drugs designed to prevent human malaria may now be tested directly on the mosquito itself.

They said this technique may put an end to testing unproven drugs on human subjects.

And they declared it may eliminate use of certain laboratory creatures not completely satisfactory for testing a drug designed for use against the human disease.

Up to now, hundreds of compounds that may or may not be effective against the parasite of malaria have been "screened" by trying them out on infected birds, monkeys or bats.

Those that appear to be effective—and safe—are then tried in humans.

Out of such researches have come number of new anti-malarial drugs.

They include paludrine which can prevent "falciparum" malaria—a highly malignant form—and atabrine, santonin and sulfadiazine which can cure this form of malaria once it develops.

There also are several drugs which can control the more prevalent, "relapsing" type of malaria known as "vivax," but there still is no known drug to prevent or cure this form.

Use of birds, the monkeys and the bats for "screening" possibilities has not been overly successful.

BIRDS ARE AN entirely different order of living being from man. Monkeys and bats are mammals, like man, but the kind of malaria they get is not exactly the same as the disease in man. Moreover, monkeys are expensive, and bats are hard to handle.

Easy-to-produce laboratory creatures like rats, guinea pigs and mice can not be used, because they do not get malaria.

Dr. Levon A. Terzian and several colleagues at the Naval Medical Research Institute believe they have found a promising new candidate for the job. The malaria mosquito itself, an insect that is certainly plentiful, certainly expendable.

They discovered that certain drugs capable of preventing one type of malaria in man can also prevent the development of that particular malaria parasite in the mosquito host.

They have microscopic evidence of the effect of these drugs on infected mosquitoes. They have further evidence that infected mosquitoes treated with a preventive drug, can not pass the infection on to chicks.

Male Baby Sitter, 29, Charged in Death of Boy

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 18 (AP)—A 29-year-old male baby sitter is under arrest today charged with homicide in the death of a two-year-old boy he tended while the child's mother went to the movies.

The sitter, Charles Hall, was held without bail to await action of the coroner. The baby, Robert Conney, was left in his care Monday night.

Mrs. Mary Conney returned home to find the boy in a semi-conscious condition, said detectives Bernard O'Donnell and Eugene Brenizer. Robert died at a hospital.

O'Donnell said an autopsy showed death due to an internal hemorrhage and other injuries. He quoted Hall as saying the baby started to cry, he tossed him up in his arms and the child must have fallen or bumped against a bed.

Brotherhood Group Hears Dr. Weber

More than 60 members of the Brotherhood of the First Presbyterian church heard Dr. Gustave W. Weber, director of religious studies at The Hill school, describe the "Experiment in International Living" at a dinner meeting Wednesday night.

The meeting was held in the church.

George L. Fisher, president of the brotherhood, acted as toastmaster and introduced Dr. Weber, while the singing was led by Ira B. Trave.

The Rev. A. Burns Hallock Jr. pastor, delivered the invocation which opened the session.

Also present at the meeting were the other officers of the group: Walter McClellan, vice president; Stanley Prezer, treasurer, and William D. Glenney, secretary.

Miss Mae Christman, who catered the dinner, was assisted by a group of women from the church.

Berlin Council Rejects Order Firing Anti-Reds

BERLIN, Nov. 18 (AP)—Berlin's anti-Communist city council flatly rejected today a Russian order firing two city officials.

The Russians had arbitrarily fired Ernst Reuter from his job as chief of the city transportation and public utilities office, and Hans Kinkelhoefer, city economics chief.

Reuter, a strong anti-Communist, was elected mayor of Berlin but prevented by the Russians from taking office. Later he was fired from the lesser office.

The three Western military governments have called the Russian action illegal.

No Award to Be Made By Nobel Peace Group

OSLO, Norway, Nov. 18 (AP)—The Nobel Peace prize committee said today it would make no award this year.

As usual when there is no award, the five-man committee appointed by the Norwegian parliament gave no reasons for its negative decision.

But the announcement was interpreted to mean no worthy candidate had been found in this period of cold war.

There were no awards during World War II, from 1939 to 1944 inclusive. The American diplomat Cordell Hull won the award in 1945.

Chinese Claim Major Victory At Suchow, Say 130,000 Slain

NANKING, Nov. 18 (AP)—A complete government victory was proclaimed today in the fateful battle of Suchow. Masses of Chinese Communists were reported surrendering or retreating after suffering 130,000 casualties.

Maj. Gen. Chang Liu-Shih, military spokesman, asserted that Communist troops north, east and south of the big base had been broken into small bands, and were groundling arms. He listed government casualties at 40,000 men. More sober opinion among Chinese officials is that the government won the first round in 10 days of bloody combat. The Communists were believed withdrawing to regroup for a probable second assault.

Even the pessimists conceded that Nanking is safe for at least one more month. Optimists declared Chiang Kai-Shek's fortunes are bounding after hitting the toogban when it looked as if the day was lost.

(The Communist radio, for the first time since the battle broke, made no new claims of victory. As heard by the Associated Press at San Francisco, it was content with relishing events of three days ago.)

A new possible trouble spot cropped up as both sides prepared for the next phase of the struggle north of Nanking.

U. S. Speeds Food To Starving China

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 (AP)—American aid to stricken China was stepped up today with a pledge of wheat, flour and rice for some of her hungry millions. The Economic Co-operation Administration announced that 12 emergency shipments of approximately 120,000 tons of U. S. foodstuffs are being sent to key cities in North and Central China.

Harlan Cleveland, ECA's China director, said the shipments will provide enough to feed the 12, 270,000 residents of the seven principal cities of China.

ing reinforced by 1250 U. S. marines from Guam. Tsingtao is 225 miles northeast of Suchow.

Officials in Nanking said they had heard the report. It was suggested the trucks might be headed for the Poshan mines west of Tsingtao to pick up coal.

General Chang told his news conference that "the battle for Suchow can be considered as concluded," but added: "What the Communists will do now is a subject of conjecture."

Excess Profits Tax Urged by McGrath

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 (AP)—Senator McGrath (D-R.I.) called today for restoration of the excess profits tax on business.

McGrath, who heads the Democratic national committee, said he spoke as a senator and not as committee chairman, in making this call.

McGrath said that, speaking as a senator, he feels "there should be a reimposition of certain taxes on excess profits." On the other hand, Senator George (D-Ga.) said at Vienna, Ga., today that he believes an excess profits tax would lead to "destruction of business." George is due to be chairman of the Senate finance committee.

Chinese Claim Major Victory Here

The Chinese government claimed yesterday a major triumph around Suchow (circled area) and said that 130,000 Communists had been killed.

The French Problem

Reds on One Side— DeGaulle on the Other

PARIS, Nov. 18 (AP)—French fears that Britain and the United States are pushing German recovery too fast appeared today to be a greater danger to the French government than the Communist strike problem.

The national assembly's committee on foreign affairs protested violently the recent decision of the British and American military governments to return control of Ruhr coal mines and steel mills to German trustees.

The committee demanded that French representatives to the London six-power conference on the Ruhr take a stand not only for international control over distribution of the industrial area's coal and steel, but for "international technical and commercial control as well."

FOREIGN MINISTER Robert Schuman will be called before the foreign affairs committee next week.

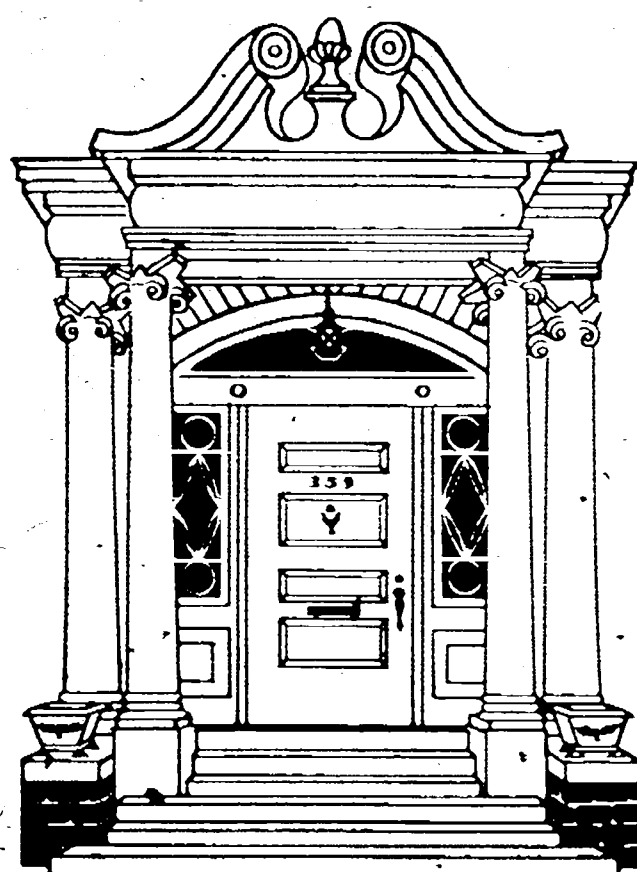

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 (AP)—The strong "France first" views of General Charles de Gaulle, now enhanced by his increased political power, are again becoming a source of sharp concern for top American officials.

Diplomatic authorities fear that if De Gaulle gains control of the French government, his policies will jeopardize (1) success of European Recovery program and (2) development of the projected North Atlantic defense alliance.

They regarded his nationalism as running against the present trend of increasing international co-operation among the Western European nations themselves and between them and the United States.

Considerable interest was aroused among State department officials by De Gaulle's comment to a news conference yesterday that while he approves of the Marshall recovery plan it must not be allowed to display "the essential interests of France."

HATBORO YOUTH RESCUES 4 JAPS TRAPPED IN MINE

18-Year-Old Soldier
Uses Experience to Save Men Buried 2 Days

TOKYO, Nov. 18 (AP)—A shy young U. S. soldier—who knows about mine disasters—told today how he saved four Japanese coal miners trapped for 13 days by a cave-in.

Pvt. Salvatore Forte, 18, Hatboro, Pa., gave the details in a telephone interview from his commanding officer's home in Sendai, 200 miles to the north.

The mine caved in at the village of Yoshioka near Sendai, trapping the miners behind 60 feet of earth 300 feet from the mine entrance.

The days later Japanese rescue squads had made no progress against the caving earth, working with crude hand tools. The American military government checked and called for modern drilling equipment.

"I JUST HAPPENED TO volunteer to drive the equipment out," Forte said. "I found the Japs pretty dazed. You know how they get to sort of running around. Well, I'd come some mining in Allentown, so I pitched in."

He saw the attempt to remove the cave-in was hopeless, and ordered a shaft drilled from atop the hill over the mine. It was 90 feet down to where the trapped miners were.

"I kept about 40 Japanese on two shifts. They just needed some one to tell them, and they really went to work."

"I always had thought the chances were slim. Things looked bad. Then we heard a faint tapping and knew the four were alive. You should have seen those Japs on the drills. They sure jabbered."

Air Force Streamlined For Defense at Home

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 (AP)—The Air Force was streamlined today to better handle the defense of the skies over America in event of an emergency.

The Continental Air command was created and given the responsibility of defending the nation from air attacks. Lt. Gen. George E. Stratemeyer, wartime commander of the U. S. Air Force in the China theater, was named head of the new command. Headquarters will be Mitchell Air Force base, New York.

Discuss Defense Problems

SECRETARY FORRESTAL

PRESIDENT TRUMAN

Truman and Forrestal Discuss Europe; China Not Mentioned

KEY WEST, Fla., Nov. 18 (AP)—President Truman and Secretary of Defense Forrestal went into a 45-minute huddle today on diplomatic and defense problems but postponed a discussion of the crisis facing the Chinese nationalist government.

The defense secretary, fresh from an inspection of the European peace front, submitted a ten-page memorandum and reported orally to the President on his observations of the peace outlook in Europe.

Presidential Press Secretary Charles G. Ross said the Chinese situation did not come up and that there was no discussion of Forrestal's pending resignation which Forrestal has said would become effective at the "will of the President."

PRESUMABLY THE talk covered the European situation, with emphasis on the Berlin blockade.

Forrestal flew here for the conference and returned to Washington in the afternoon.

He was accompanied by Major General Alfred Gruenther, director of the joint staff, who carried a bulging brief case and joined in the conference.

The discussion took place on the palm-shaded lawn of the temporary "White House"—the commandant's house on the submarine base here.

It took place after a luncheon in which the President also was joined by Senator Pepper (D-Fla.), Florida's governor-elect Fuller Warren; Representative George Smathers (D-Fla.), and C. V. Griffin, citrus fruit grower of Hower, Fla.

The conversation at the luncheon table was general, and then the President went out on the lawn to talk with Forrestal.

"THE SECRETARY presented a written memorandum concerning his observations abroad, and then made an oral report," Ross related. "The secretary's observations abroad were almost the sole topic of conversation."

As for China, Ross asserted: "The subject of China, I'm categorically informed by the President and the secretary, did not come up."

Coast Strike Hurts East As Peace Efforts Fail

NEW YORK, Nov. 18 (AP)—Prospects for a quick end to the East Coast waterfront strike faded today.

Continuation of the crippling walkout of AFL dock workers at least into next week was predicted by William N. Margolis, ace Federal mediator, who was sent here in an effort to crack an employer-union deadlock over a new contract.

Margolis made his comments after conferring with Joseph P. Ryan, president of the AFL International Longshoremen's association, whose 65,000 members struck more than a week ago, and other union leaders.

He also conferred with John V. Lyon, chairman of the New York Shipping association, the employer group.

Both declined to discuss results of the talks.

THE STRIKE has closed ports from Maine to Virginia and has made heavy inroads into the East's industrial and commercial life.

Margolis said he expected negotiations to continue into next week.

One bright spot in the picture, however, is a meeting tomorrow of Federal conciliators with representatives of ship owners and the union, the first joint meeting since the strike began.

Meanwhile, more industries began to stagger under the impact of the strike.

The American Sugar Refining company, said here it will have to close its Brooklyn and Baltimore plants within 10 to 12 days if the strike goes on. A. B. Babcock, refinery manager of the Brooklyn plant, said the raw sugar supplies there are nearly exhausted.

The Franklin refinery in Philadelphia plans to close Saturday, and the Pennsylvania division of the National Sugar Refining company said it will close early next week if

Psychologist Talks To Junior Chamber On Personnel Issues

Dr. Clarence T. Genovese, industrial psychologist of a management engineering firm in Donora, Wednesday night addressed a "bosses' meeting" of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Attended by 42, including 16 executives of firms employing Jaycee members, the meeting was held in Art's diner.

The speaker dwelt for two hours on the relationship of management to personnel. He stressed that employers should take "a human inventory as well as a material one."

He gave a list of rules for mental health, including, one, don't worry; two, don't lose your temper; and three, look beyond yourself and hold a high objective.

THE CLUB decided to sponsor a "home show" of home appliances and materials of local concerns. It will be held in the Armory the last week of February.

Herbert Drumheller, chairman of the "I Speak for Democracy" speech contest for High school pupils, made his report.

No contestants have entered the contest yet, he said. It is planned for Tuesday night at 8 o'clock in the Senior High school auditorium.

Clarence B. Welch, president, was in charge.

IN ADDITION to the loss of grain in storage, there is considerable loss in feed purchased by the farmer to feed chickens, dairy cattle and other livestock, as well as loss of vegetables and fruit in storage.

Townpeople are asked to join in the fight to wipe out this waste. If only the farmers kill off the rats, then rats breeding in towns and villages will spread out to re-infest the farms, Mrs. Kulp pointed out.

If, however, both farmers and townpeople join hands in this battle, the chance of beating the rat menace will be very much improved, she added.

An American source said the U. S. delegation will make a preliminary statement on Palestine before the 58-nation committee tomorrow. He did not indicate what stand the U. S. would take.

Long was under the influence of sodium pentothal.

After the recording was played, Judge Donovan recessed court and ordered the sheriff to begin an immediate search for a former sailor who disappeared from Richmond a few days after the slaying and is believed to be in the northwest now.

IN THE RECORDING, Long said he stood silent with horror as another man stabbed his wife.

Dr. Meyer A. Zelgas, a member of the University of California medical faculty said he used the drug on Long because he found him to be the "typically passive, submissive type," to whom murder is alien.

The recording, which lasted for more than an hour, produced this story:

Long flew home from Anchorage, Alaska, to effect a reconciliation with his wife and to ask her to return to Alaska with him and bring their two children, Karen, six months, and Kenneth Jr., 3.

The voice trembled, "I cried and begged her." Then they went to see a priest who advised Mrs. Long to go back to her husband. "She said she would be my wife, as ever then (when we got home) she laughed and said she had to me at the priest's."

MRS. LONG, THE voice went on, went to the bedroom and "she told me this man had made love to her there... she didn't know whether I was Karen's father or not."

Then Mrs. Long screamed, "A man came out of the kitchen with a knife. Mrs. Long said 'he is going to kill you so we can have happiness.'"

Instead, the man killed Mrs. Long and told Long to call the police and say he (Long) had just killed his wife.

"I didn't kill Bobbe. I didn't kill my wife."

Long said the man had gone out the back window after telling him to call the police.

Dr. Zelgas said Long undoubtedly was acting under hypnotic influence when he called police and announced he thought he had stabbed his wife but couldn't remember.

In some past geologic times, it is believed, there was little difference between types of plants which grew in widely separated parts of the world.

Water Coolers Cause Heated Discussion As Parents Discuss Good Drinking Supply

The recently-purchased water coolers were the heated topic of discussion at the meeting of the Central Parent-Teacher association last night in the Washington building.

Unforeseen at the time of their purchase a year ago, was the fact that 200 children of the school would draw the three-gallon bottles rapidly, necessitating the changing of bottles as often as three times daily.

They are termed too heavy for the teachers to handle and too inconvenient. In addition, they are proving too expensive.

Mr. David Emery, president, appointed the following committee to investigate all possibilities for obtaining a clear, clean, and cool water for the children to drink at its expense: Mr. George Wagner, Mrs. Reed McGowan, Mrs. Helen Hurst, Mr. Gerta Herd and Mrs. Gerald Brown.

The group also planned a school party for the youngsters in the Washington and Jackson schools for Wednesday, Dec. 22. Santa Claus will be present to distribute gifts.

Members also are making plans to take the teachers of the two schools to a dinner the second week in December to take place at Kuss's restaurant.

Mrs. Dorothy Clark and Mrs. Evelyn Bauer will head the committee in charge of the toy booth at the Navy Mothers' bazaar on Saturday, Dec. 19.

Preceding the bazaar meeting a harvest gathering was enjoyed, with booths offering all types of refreshments to the large number attending. Most particularly were the PTA officials glad to see the many fathers who attended.

THE FOLLOWING committees helped to make the affair a success: Hot dogs and soft drinks: Miss Catherine Saylor, chairman; Mrs. Lawrence Emory, Mrs. James McIntire, Mrs. Emory Rinaldi, Mrs. Paul Fry, Mrs. Horace Kramer and Mrs. Thomas Lawler, aides, and Miss Kathryn Rivers, chairman, Mrs. Stephen Minnich and Mrs. Robert Krassley, aides.

Movies: Miss Elizabeth Wismer, chairman; Mrs. Harold Glenney and Mrs. Robert Kramer, aides; cake: Mrs. Dorothy Clark, chairman, Mrs. Robert Updegrave, Mrs. Donald Vanderslice, Mrs. Floyd Shaner, Mrs. Wayne Lender and Mrs. William C. Curry, aides.

Ice cream: Miss Kathryn Ellenberger, chairman, and Mrs. William Firth, aid; fish pond: Mrs. Roberta Richardson, chairman; Mrs. Charles Harberger, Mrs. Evelyn Bauer and Mrs. Robert Kells, aides.

Children's Toys Rapidly Being Repaired By 'Santas' of the Junior Service League

Members of the Junior Service League learned last night at a meeting at the home of Mrs. R. S. Bartholomew, 1415 Sunset drive, that the toy clinic is only in need of toys to make some unfortunate child's Christmas a bit brighter.

For the first time since the war years, the group again is conducting a toy clinic, collecting toys from children who outgrow them, repairing, restuffing and repainting to make them shine like new. They will be given to the Salvation Army and the Family Welfare Society for distribution.

The group are at work tonight in the basement of the Earl Keiser home, 1415 Sunset drive, and are running low on toys to fix. Any who would have toys that could be repaired were asked to call Mrs. Bartholomew or Miss Almedia Martin, co-chairmen of the committee in charge.

THE HANDICRAFT group of boys at the YMCA are making doll cradles and pull toys which the girls will use, and are planning to distribute them to their toys.

Members of the league are fashioning doll cushions, bows and covers for the toy cradles. Also being made are dolls, dolls' clothes, animals, dolls' eyes and buttons, dolls' clothes, dolls' eyes and buttons, dolls' clothes, dolls' eyes and buttons.

All these must be completed by Dec. 12, when the group will display their handiwork at the home of Mrs. C. Robert Elcker at a tea from 3 to 5 o'clock.

The tea is being planned on immense lines with special guests to be the past presidents and honorary members. Co-chairmen of the function are Mrs. Herbert Drumheller and Mrs. Melvin H. Gungrich.

ASSISTING WILL BE Mrs. Don and Goodnow, Mrs. James Ehl, Mrs. Frederick Baker, Mrs. William Cunningham Jr., Miss Nancy Vaughan, Mrs. Benjamin Longaker, Mrs. Robert Kulp, Mrs. John McCashin and Mrs. John Howard.

Also under discussion last night was the annual Green and Silver ball, a formal supper dance sponsored by the group. The affair will be held in the Brookside country club, Dec. 27.

Mrs. Ralph Maack is chairman of the orchestra committee, Mrs. Whitney Saunders and Mrs. Herbert Houck, publicity committee, Mrs. Earl Keiser and Mrs. McCashin prize committee and Mrs. Lawrence Lord and Mrs. Carl Kenyon of the ticket committee.

Personalities in the News

Roberto Mujica Lainez, Buenos Aires writer for a well-known U. S. magazine, landed here today for a visit. He is inclined to think so.

Recently, three small bombs broke windows in his home. The explosives blew up outside the front door.

He explained it thus: The bombs were thrown by persons "who object to my journalistic activities."

Vice president-elect Alben Barkley said recently that Mrs. Max Truitt, his daughter, will serve as his official hostess at Washington social affairs.

Barkley, a widower, told newsmen in answer to a question about reports that he had had a great many applications for the job as his hostess.

He grinned: "I don't know whether these women want to marry me or just hire out to me."

Even a judge can be out of order. This fact was impressed upon judge-elect P. C. Sanders, of Austin, Tex.

Sanders tried to take over the court immediately after the Nov. 2 elections.

But, he ran into difficulties. The State Supreme court ruled that he was in contempt.

Sanders was never in "any sense a candidate for the unexpired term" and that he must wait until Jan. 1, 1949 before he can legally take over the court.

The union says it's all right for Spike Jones to return to a popular Hollywood night spot.

It ordered Jones and his musicians out when a little difficulty arose over some money.

Jones admits that his job is to make the "joint bounce."

He doesn't like his pay check to do the same thing.

Rep. Knutson (R-Minn.) defeated in the recent elections after serving 2 years in Congress, has been looking back over those years and has come up with what action in those 32 years is he most proud of.

Was it the tax cut he engineered in the 80th Congress?

No, he said, it wasn't.

But rather, it was a free-planting bill passed in 1928.

Knutson said:

"In the long run, that bill will confer greater benefits on the country than any other legislation I ever had anything to do with."

Hazel Scott, Negro pianist, recently refused to appear before a segregated audience in Texas.

She summed up her feeling in these words:

"What justification can anyone have who comes to hear me and then objects to sitting next to another Negro?"

Presidential press secretaries Charles Ross and Matthew Connelly were in for a surprise during their recent visit with President Truman in Florida.

Both boys, who have been tight-lipped on numerous occasions when prodded by reporters, were invited to visit the press room in Key West.

As they entered the room, a big sign greeted them. It read: "Welcome Matt and Charlie. NO COMMENT."

Actress Jane Wyman has turned artist.

It's the first one she has put on the block.

The price? $4.75.

Czech Reds Re-Elect Gottwald as Chairman

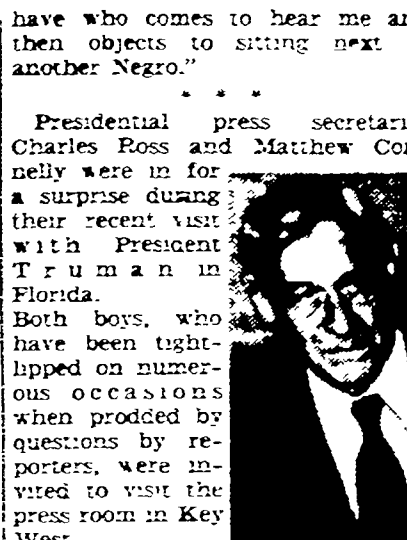

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, Nov. 18 (AP)—The Czechoslovak Communist party re-elected President Klement Gottwald its chairman today.

The Prague radio said a "party control committee" was named. The leaders were not listed and it was not explained why a control group was necessary.

40 Victims of Smog Begin Free Vacation

WILMINGTON, N. C., Nov. 18 (AP)—Forty victims of an industrial smog in Donora, Pa., landed here today for an all-expense free vacation of one week.

The group accompanied by a registered nurse landed by chartered plane as guests of the junior chambers of commerce of Wilmington and nearby Wrightsville Beach. Their ages range from 26 to 74.

Mrs. Lydia Little, the oldest, beamed. "In all my years I have never been treated so kindly."

They were whisked away from the airport to a late afternoon luncheon in Wilmington. Later they will be taken to homes at or near Wrightsville Beach.

The invitation to the Pennsylvanians, who were injured by the smothering smog which killed a score, was issued a fortnight ago. Acceptance was delayed because the Civil Aeronautics commission vetoed a plan of airlines to bring the victims here free of cost. The Javets then paid $2000 in plane fares to get them here.

Argentine and Bolivian Police Clash at Border

LA PAZ, Bolivia, Nov. 18 (AP)—Argentine and Bolivian gendarmes exchanged shots for four hours today after the Argentines crossed into Bolivia at Villazon in pursuit of smugglers.

There was no official information about casualties, if any.

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

By SHEPARD BARCLAY

EVERY WRITER about bridge receives letters that accuse him of overestimating the value of card-reading in the reported hands. A goodly share of them point out the damage that might have been done if the reading happened to be wrong. Against that indictment, the only honest plea is "guilty" at times. There are situations in which depending on your card-reading is completely unsound. This is definitely true if you have a sure thing way to make your rubber bridge contract and instead prefer a method involving a risk to the contract to get extra tricks that depend on the accuracy of your reading.

That bid of 2-Spades by West was quite unorthodox with his kind of hand. But it happened to win a fine result for his side in an utterly unexpected manner. His purpose was twofold, to crowd the opponents if they had the main strength and help put his side into a game if East had anything of value. Little did he think that the bid's influence on the part would prove more important. After his opponent reached a game contract anyway.

The opening lead was the spade 6, which the J took. With a trick 12.

WATERERS and More Eggs

Water plays an important part in egg production. An egg is approximately 65% water. Every 24 hours, 400 laying hens will require about 10 gallons of water. They will drink more when the water temperature is right and the water is easily accessible.

The Jamestown 8 gallon waterer for laying hens is available with a lamp heated base and stand or may be used as simple waterer without base or stand.

Jamestown offers a positive waterer for every need in a variety of sizes.

Test Supersonic Parachute

Dropping to earth, a new supersonic parachute lands safely after a test flight near Schenectady, N. Y. Containing delicate research instruments, the parachute, which can be expelled from a V-2 rocket as high as 100 miles above the ground, reaches supersonic speed before its vanes spread out. This causes the device to slow up to about 27 miles an hour, just before its sharp nose is embedded in the earth. Thus it can land without damage to the delicate cargo it carries.

ready to proceed against 18 individuals in Philadelphia, three in Bucks county, one each in Chester, Delaware and Lehigh and three in Montgomery county.

THE INQUIRY was directed by J. R. Heilman, chief investigator of the Department's Bureau of Foods and Chemistry. He was assisted by two Department veterinarians, Dr. L. L. North and Dr. Charles McLaughlin.

Horst said most of the accused men "have been working independently without licenses for slaughter houses or rendering plants, failing to register their products with the department, storing horse meat in cabinets with other foods, and failure to mark containers with the name and address of the producer, ingredients and analysis as required by the State law.

He added "boned-out meat originating in an unidentified dead animal rendering plant in New York state" was imported into Pennsylvania. He said the product had been processed for dog food.

AMONG THE VIOLATIONS the State will try to establish, Horst added, are:

Sale of horse meat to small restaurants as hamburger, sold with the advice that the cook should "add a little grease and you can't tell the difference from beef."

Patties of meat, suspected of being from dead horses, put out for sale in Philadelphia stores and marked pet food, dog food made of horse meat labeled as "wholesome for human consumption" and "U. S. Inspected."

adults who want something done about "bad" boys who destroyed property or raised mischief generally.

In the past three years or less, Burgess Griffith has lectured 510 erring juveniles. Sometimes they repeat. He recalled one repeater in particular.

A young boy was brought before him twice to be reprimanded for smashing a fence. Each time, the complainer was satisfied with the extraction of a $1 fine from the juvenile.

A few weeks later, the same boy brought to Burgess hall a woman's pocketbook he had found on the street. It had $12 in it.

Pleasantly surprised by the turnabout of a bad boy, the Burgess turned to his home to give him one of his dollars back as a reward.

IN ADDITION TO complaints, Burgess Griffith gets thousands of requests. One of the most common is to speak at a public ceremony or dinner. His every effort showed that he has made 105 addresses as Burgess, for a total of 110 minutes.

He indicated with a smile that this one-minute-plus average might be one reason he's in such demand as a speaker.

With part of his term still to go, he had served 1044 days as of yesterday. He said he had either been in his office, or in contact with it by telephone, on 104 of those days.

About the 20 cents an hour, based on 2200 hours spent and $2200 received, he asserted with a smile: "Well, that's not good by one way of figuring. But by another, it's fine. I'd still keep the job if it didn't pay a cent. I like the job."

Undeclared in Pacific Coast conference play and loser of only one game this year, the University of Oregon Webfoot seek a spot in the Rose Bowl which may go to California, also undeclared. Oregon has been beaten only by Michigan, 14-0. The Webfoots have taken Santa Barbara, Stanford, Idaho, Washington State, St. Mary's, Washington and UCLA and still must play Oregon State. Oregon has challenged California to a playoff game if both go through undeclared in coast play.

DRIFTIN' AROUND

WITH ELMER PANOC

LATEST REPORTS from Upper Montico league officials indicate that the circuit may take in a few new members next year and change its name.

The Upper Montico league is reported to be planning a move that will see North Coventry and Boyertown join forces to form a new circuit—maybe the Tri-County league.

At a recent Upper Montico meeting, representatives were talking about the new league. The Montico league now is divided into two separate circuits: the Lower and Upper.

The champions of both divisions usually meet in a playoff at the end of each season to determine the champion of the entire Montico League.

The Lower Montico league for years consisted of only three or four schools. Now, new schools are joining the league and schools in the upper division are getting the urge to form their own combine.

Schools in the upper division, Roversford, East Greenville, West Pottstown, Pennsburg, Collegeville and Schuylkill, are sending representatives to meetings to talk over the new plans.

Invitations have been sent to North Coventry and Boyertown to enter the new league and some new developments are expected soon.

North Coventry is a member of Section Six in the Philadelphia Suburban conference. Boyertown is a member of the Berks County Scholastic conference.

RUMORS are flying in Pottstown these days. Latest news from the grapevine reveals that the schools in Section Three of the Philadelphia Suburban conference may form a football league.

As it stands now, every team in Section Three, with the exception of Pottstown, is a member of the Chester County Football League. Pottstown has been wanting to join a football circuit for years and is reported to be working with other schools to have the PIAA recognize the new circuit as the Section Three Football League of the Philadelphia Suburban conference.

Pottstown is a member of the Philadelphia Suburban conference, along with many other schools. No official standings are recorded in football, so really it isn't a regular league of conference.

Other teams interested in the new idea are Phoenixville, West Chester, Coatesville, Downingtown and Berwyn.

HERE IS a suggestion for Pottstown High football fans. There are no football games in this area tomorrow afternoon, but if you want to see a grid tussle why not travel to Chester to see the PNC-Albright fray?

Not only will you see a good football game, but you'll be able to watch Bobby Martz, former Pottstown High star, in action. Martz is the starting quarterback for the PNC Cadets.

THE TWIN-BORO AA announced yesterday that its game with Bill Morrow's Shamrocks of Philadelphia will be played on the Roversford High field instead of the Lake View park gridiron.

The Twin-Boro club decided to move the game to the high school field because of the fact that there are more seats and Roversford High doesn't have a game scheduled for tomorrow.

Game time has been set for 2:30.

Two Hill Grid Teams End Season With Victories Over Malvern Foe

The Hill fourths closed out their 1948 football season yesterday by dumping the Malvern Prep junior varsity eleven, 12-6, on The Hill fields.

The victory was the sixth of the year for The Hill as compared to one defeat. The lone setback came at the hands of the Pottstown High junior varsity, 20-0.

The hosts jumped into a 6-0 lead early in the second period. Barry Lambert's long runs placed the ball on the three-yard line and Eric Jones scored from there on an off tackle play.

Dick Balton's nine-yard pass to John Kelly in the end zone gave Malvern a touchdown and tied the score at 6-6 in the third quarter, but The Hill clinched the victory on Pete Geible's touchdown in the fourth stanza.

JONES PASSED 30 yards to Lambert and then tossed another aerial to Bob Richardson to set up the final TD. Geible scored on a quarterback sneak from the one-yard stripe.

In another game yesterday, The Hill fifth scored a 13-0 triumph over the Malvern junior varsity seconds. Yesterday's game ended the season for The Hill team, which won four and lost three.

Tex Collins put The Hill in front from the start, scoring on a 49-yard scamper in the first period. Cal Miller backed the line for the extra point.

Max Pearson tallied the second touchdown in the third quarter, smashing off tackle from the one-yard line. Two Pearson passes to Peck Hanes and Mack McClure set up the six-pointer.

Ike Williams Wins Technical Knockout Over Billy Nixon

A crowd of 4400 paid $7985 to see the fight. Williams donated his purse to the Carver Club for boys and girls of the Trenton YMCA. Williams' share was $1430.

GENERALSHIP KEY TO ARMY, NAVY OUTCOME

Fans Will Witness Battle Between Galiffa And Baysinger Saturday

NEW YORK, Nov. 18 (AP)—If there is such a thing as an indispensable man he is the quarterback on a T-formation football team.

The vaunted offensive formation cannot move without a top man under the center. So when Army meets Navy Saturday in the 49th clash of these two traditional rivals, the outcome largely will depend on the performance of Arnold Galiffa, Army's quarterback, and Reeves Baysinger, who handles that chore for Navy.

Galiffa has come a long way for the Cadets since he took over the quarterback slot in 1947 from the graduated Arnold Tucker. His passing has sharpened up, his faking has improved and his selection of plays is far steadier.

In addition, the swarthy Donora, Pa., native has become a real leader of the West Point legions. In the Penn game, with Army's undefeated record in great peril, he rallied the Cadets in the last three minutes and drove them 73 yards for the score that gave Army a 26-20 win.

ONE BAD play, one wrong maneuver and the clock would have doomed Army, which trailed 20-19. A great Penn line had stopped his runners cold, so Galiffa took to the air. He had Frank Fischl, sophomore back, throw his only pass of the game and it was good for 19 yards. Galiffa tossed a 20-yarder to Dave Parrish, and with 30 seconds left, he passed to John Trosen in the end zone from 15 yards away.

Galiffa almost had to be an athlete, coming from Donora. That small manufacturing city 20 miles south of Pittsburgh is also the home of Stan Musial, the magnificent St. Louis Cardinal; Lee Sala, undefeated middleweight boxer, and a number of other sports heroes.

Galiffa is 20 years old, stands six, two, weighs 185 and will be asked to handle Army's quarterbacking for another season.

THE MIDDLES will counter Galiffa with a talented operative of their own in Baysinger, who is the son of the Syracuse football coach.

It was Baysinger's fine play in the 1946 Army-Navy game that nearly dumped the Blanchard-Davis-Tucker Cadets. Tiffmiddles dropped that magnificent match, 21-18, after showing Army all over the field in the second half and failing by only three yards and a few seconds to win, when the clock beat them. Missed conversions cost them a tie.

It was that heartbreaker that catapulted Baysinger into gridiron prominence at Navy. Before the contest he was a fifth string quarterback; since it has been the main cog in the Middles machine.

NOW 21, Baysinger stands six feet and weighs 185. Despite the dismal record of his squad this season—he dropped eight games to eight of the nation's best teams—his pitching arm has kept Navy among the eastern leaders in passing, something unheard of for an all-league team.

This is Baysinger's last year on the Navy squad, and it also is the final contest for Bob Horne, who ranks right behind him in quarterback seniority. Both will see action against the heavily-favored Army powerhouse. Should Navy manage to score its first win of the season against the Cadets, who have yet to lose, it would make Harry Truman's victory look like a mild upset.

McCoy Seeks 3d Victory in Reading Ring

READING, Nov. 18—Bibber McCoy, Boston newcomer, will try to make it three wins in a row at the Reading Armory Saturday night when he takes on Lavern Baxter, Raleigh, N. C., in the feature event of the weekly wrestling show.

The two wrestlers will travel over the one-fall-to-a-finish route in the windup.

McCoy is unbeaten in two bouts here this season, having pinned Johnny Galagher, Camden, N. J., Nov. 6 and Wilbur Nead, Iowa City, Ia., the past Saturday night.

Baxter, six-foot, six-inch brawler originally from Texas, is angling for a shot at National Wrestling association champion Frank Sexton. Baxter has been victorious in two of three Reading appearances during the current campaign. He divided two bouts with Marvin Mercer and flatted Dutch Schweigart.

THE WINNER of Saturday's main bout will qualify for a battle with huge Primo Carnera, the Italian giant, who is undefeated since deserting the boxing ring several years ago to join the wrestling ranks.

Baxter and McCoy both favor the rough type of wrestling and fans should see an action-packed battle Saturday.

Mercer, the Reading ace, and Schweigart, Camden, will again be together in the team match. This pair will strut their stuff against Jack Kelly, newcomer from Bellsville, Ill., and Fred Carrone, Brooklyn bad boy. The bout will be a best of three falls tussle.

Frank James West coast Negro, will make his debut here Saturday in the 30-minute opener. He will face Francois Miquett, French champion who has an impressive record in the Reading Armory ring.

Trojans Plan Defense for Whippet Star

Downingtown High's gridders are hoping that the result of the 1946 Whippet-Trojan game will have some effect on Pottstown High's eleven next week.

The Trojans were a disheartened bunch when they walked off the Downingtown gridiron two years ago after dropping a 25-12 decision to the underdog Whippets.

When asked about Downingtown's chances of winning this year, Don White, Whippet coach, said: "It's hard to say. We're a hot and cold team." The Whippets have won five games and lost three this year.

Pottstown scouting reports revealed that the Trojans must watch a little halfback named Billy Hayes if they intend to halt the Downingtown offensive attack. It was Hayes who led the Whippets to a 19-6 victory over Coatesville a week ago.

WHITE, HOWEVER, was quick in calming down the reports. "Billy played a good ball game against Coatesville. I must say. But that was his first good game this year. He didn't get to see much action against Upper Merion or Bridgeport and he didn't look too good in the other games. He is a good halfback, but he plays spotty football. Sometimes he's good and sometimes he's just fair," said White.

Coach Heeb Meyers, however, has been working his Pottstown team on defense this week and more defensive work is ahead for the Trojans. Meyers is taking the advice of his scouts and is planning defenses to stop Hayes.

The Trojan coach is also stressing offensive tactics on Franklin Field these days. A year ago the Trojans ran a few plays from the single wing formation against Downingtown and the Whippets were caught off guard for a few minutes. Meyers may have something up his sleeve again this year.

Meyers warned the Trojans about overconfidence and told them to remember what happened in 1946. "Downingtown, you know, shoots the works in every game. They don't have anything to lose."

State Hunters to Set Bear-Killing Mark

HARRISBURG, Nov. 18 (AP)—Pennsylvania hunters bagged 289 bears during the first two days of the bear season. The State Game commission announced today.

"At this date the total kill should run well over the past year's record," a commission spokesman stated. The bag for the season a year ago was 369.

The spokesman said at the same time that the killing of cub bears this year is "deplorably high." Tentative reports from around the state he said, show that about 48 were killed during the first three days. The fine for this offense is $100.

No deaths have been reported up to the present among bear hunters, although five non-fatal accidents have been recorded.

22 Basketball Games Scheduled For Boyertown High This Year

Boyertown High's Bears will be the busiest schoolboy cagers in the Pottstown area this winter.

This was revealed yesterday when Lawrence E. Grimm, Boyertown High principal, released the Boyertown High basketball schedule consisting of 22 games.

Pottstown High comes nearest to matching that schedule, but even the Trojans are two games short. The Pottstown quintet will play only 20 games this year.

The Bears will open their season at home Tuesday, Dec. 7 against Collegeville in a non-league tilt. After the Collegeville tussle, the Boyertown five will open their bid for the championship of the Southern division in the Berks County league Dec. 10 against Oley at home.

TEN OF THE 22 games are league frays. Games with Collegeville, Spring City, Roversford, Mohnton, Mt. Penn, East Greenville and Warwick complete the list. Oley, Kutztown, Fleetwood, Hamburg and Amity will furnish the opposition in the Berks County circuit.

Grimm also announced yesterday that Herbert Hartman will take over the coaching assignment at Boyertown High this year. Hartman replaces Bob Fleming, who has coached the Bears for the past eight years. Fleming will coach football and baseball.

Hartman is a product of Wilson High at West Lawn. After leaving the small Berks county school, he went on to basketball fame at Franklin and Marshall college in Lancaster.

THE NEW CAGE menior has been working out with some of the Boyertown players for the past three weeks. After the football season closes next week, Hartman will step up the tempo of the workouts in hopes of having his team in good shape for the opening game.

H. K. Johnson and Jake Hartline are the only lettermen back from the 1947 team which finished third in the Southern division of the Berks County circuit. Don Mackey, Russ Miller and other boys who saw action in some varsity games a year ago will be on hand to form the nucleus of the Boyertown quintet.

The schedule:

Texas Mines Invited To Play in Sun Bowl

EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 18 (AP)—The Sun Bowl game selection committee today asked Texas College of Mines to represent the Border conference in El Paso New Year's Day gridiron contest.

Dee Belding, chairman of the committee, extended the invitation to the local school after Texas Tech declined a bid to the post-season game.

Members of the school's athletic council will meet Saturday to consider the invitation. There were indications the Mines will accept.

Belding said he could release no information on prospects for the other Sun Bowl team.

It has been reported, however, that schools under consideration include Utah, Lehigh, Lafayette, St. Bonaventure, Maryland, West Virginia, and two Ohio colleges, Dayton and Miami. Miami defeated Texas Tech 13-12 in the Sun Bowl the past New Year's Day.

PHANTOM STAR HELPING GEORGIA TO BOWL TRIP

Joe Geri Stars for Bulldogs, Has Chance to Set New Scoring Mark

ATHENS, Ga., Nov. 18 (AP)—The past September candidate Harry Truman and the Georgia Bulldogs were even-Stephen in their respective races.

The general opinion was that Georgia had a slim chance of not losing more than four games, the same as the 1947 season.

Now President Truman has a return engagement at the White House and Georgia is about as close to a bowl as you get before you actually are in one.

SOON AFTER the September training season began the worm started turning. Coach Wally Butts, Johnny Rauch, quarterback and passer from Yeadon, Pa., Joe Geri, Phenixville, Pa., runner and kicker, and Porter Payne, Atlanta tackle, were the biggest reasons for the turn.

Eight games are behind this strange team which sprang from the bare red clay practice field and only one of them was lost.

The loss was to North Carolina but not by any great score as the Tar Heels usually run up. It was a modest 21-14 which makes Georgia people say, "I wish we could play those Tar Heels in a bowl."

In the past two weeks Georgia defeated Florida and Auburn.

Still to go are Furman and then the battle of the cracker barrel—Tech vs. Georgia. The Bulldogs expect to whip Furman easily and give Joe Geri a chance to break the all-time conference scoring record of 98 points. He already has 78.

11 New Records Set By Gridders in NFL

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 18 (AP)—Eleven new records have been established by the National Football league as a whole in the circuit's first 41 games this season. Publicity Director Joe Labrum revealed today.

The Records with the old marks in parenthesis:

Average first downs per game, 33.6 (33.2); total yards per game, 646 (643.3); total yards rushing, 298 (278); forwards attempted, 50 (49.8); percentage forwards completed, 47.1 percent (47 percent); percentage forwards intercepted, 8.12 percent (8.26 percent); total rushes and forwards, 126 (121.2); touchdowns, 6.18 (5.93); points, 45 (43.9) and total plays, 173 (166.5).

COAST TO NAME ROSE BOWL CLUB NEXT MONDAY

Representatives of Ten Schools to Vote; Oregon, California Favored

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 18 (AP)—There may be many anxious hours of waiting next Monday before the Rose Bowl vote on the Pacific Coast conference is announced.

"Anytime after 9 o'clock Monday morning" (12 o'clock Pottstown time), said the conference commissioner's office today.

Conference faculty representatives of the 10 universities have been instructed to telegraph their vote to the commissioner's office by noon Monday.

H. D. THOREAU, executive assistant to Commissioner Victor O. Schmidt, said the vote will not be announced before 9 a. m. and if some of the members are late voting, or their messages are delayed, the result might not be released until mid or late afternoon.

The race hinges, of course, on California's final game against Stanford at Berkeley, and Oregon's battle with Oregon State at Corvallis.

As previously explained, if the two teams wind up in a tie, and the conference vote results in a five-five deadlock which cannot be altered after successive balloting (another time consumer, incidentally), then the team longest away from the Rose Bowl would draw the honor.

Oregon would be the team, in this event. The Webfoos last played in the Pasadena classic in 1920, but California appeared in 1938.

Penn State Star Hasn't Been On Losing Team in 26 College Tilts

STATE COLLEGE, Nov. 18 (AP)—Winning football games is nothing new for Francis Rogel.

The husky Penn State fullback never has played in a losing college game. In his two years at State, the Ninety Lions have chalked up 15 victories and two ties.

Before that, in his freshman year, he was a big factor in 10 victories at California Teachers college.

Rogel, who is leading the Lions with seven touchdowns and 394 yards in rushing in seven games this season, is rated by Coach Bob Higgins as one of the nation's hardest-hitting fullbacks.

AFTER SERVING his grid apprenticeship at Scott High in North Braddock, Penn spent his freshman year "warmed out" to California Teachers in 1946.

Moving over to Penn State the past year as a sophomore, the five-foot, ten-inch, 185-pound back led the Lions' rushing attack with 551 yards gained during the regular nine-game undefeated season. He added an important 95 more in the Cotton Bowl 12-13 tie with Southern Methodist.

Rogel hit his peak two weeks ago, scoring both Penn State touchdowns in the 12-0 victory over the University of Pennsylvania. The stocky junior bulled his way through the vaunted Penn line and romped on for 44 yards to give the Lions an important 7-0 lead in the first period.

LATER, he grabbed a difficult pass in the end zone from tailback Elwood Petchel while covered by two Penn defenders.

A specialist in line plunges when a first down is needed, Rogel is a hard man to stop once he gets the ball. Rarely is he stopped behind the line of scrimmage. His knees go high with his short, less churning like pistons, making a difficult target for opposing tacklers.

Often, when the line has failed to open a hole, he plows right over the top of the heap or else makes his own opening.

"Punchy," as his teammates call him, captained both the football and basketball teams in high school. However, except for a brief attempt at intercollegiate wrestling the past winter, he has confined his athletic efforts at Penn State to the gridiron.

He pinned his opponent in his lone wrestling match.

Considered by Coach Steve Owen, of the New York Giants, as an ideal prospect for professional football, 21-year-old Rogel plans to give the play-for-pay game a whirl after he graduates in 1950.
